

Lutheranch Equestrian Program Code of Conduct

The mission of Lutheranch is to provide a place set apart to inspire and empower all in Christ's love. Thoughtful conduct and self-control factor into the safety and enjoyment of all participants. In keeping with our mission, all persons at Lutheranch Equestrian Program will be expected to adhere to the following code of conduct:

- Respect all humans and animals - no abusive language or actions.
- Respect all property and care for each item as if it were your own –no graffiti, put items back where you found them, no throwing or dropping items etc.
- Respect other's property. Do not use other's items without permission.
- Refrain from loud, abrupt noises, actions or behaviors that may startle the horses
- Do not engage in disruptive, unsafe or inappropriate behavior
- No smoking at the barn
- No alcoholic beverages at the barn without prior signed permission of Executive Site Director
- No guns or weapons at barn without prior signed permission of Executive Site Director

I have read, understand and agree to abide by this Code of Conduct.
